INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Florida Tax Review invites the submission of manuscripts addressing issues of tax law and policy. The Review publishes several types of manuscripts: “Articles,” “Commentaries,” and “Book Reviews.”

The Florida Tax Review is a faculty-edited law review published by the Graduate Tax Program of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, with the assistance of a number of Graduate Tax Students who assist the faculty editorial board.

The Florida Tax Review prefers electronic submissions in Microsoft Word sent via ExpressO (law.bepress.com/expresso). Articles may be e-mailed to FTR@law.ufl.edu. If a hard copy submission is necessary, please mail your article to: Editor, Florida Tax Review, University of Florida Levin College of Law, P.O. Box 117634, Gainesville, FL 32611-7634.

Although the Florida Tax Review has no minimum or maximum page requirements for submissions, it does have a strong preference for submissions that are 30,000 words or less, including text and footnotes. The Florida Tax Review will consider manuscripts at any time. All citations should follow The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (20th ed.); however, some modifications will be made by our editors to conform with the Florida Tax Review Styles Manual.

For submissions made directly to the Florida Tax Review, the Board of Editors will endeavor to decide within three weeks whether to publish a manuscript. After the decision has been made to publish, the Florida Tax Review is committed to expediting publication.

All tax law and policy positions presented are solely those of the authors. The Editors and the University of Florida Levin College of Law do not approve of or adopt such positions merely through the act of publishing the manuscripts in the Florida Tax Review.
